Scope and Contents

Research files documenting South Windsor Guided History, an effort of the South Windsor Historical Society and National Trust for Historic Preservation to compose a guide to South Windsor historic sites. Contents include planning documents, research notes, correspondence, drafts, and manuscript copies.

Karen Gano was the lead researcher on the project, which was funded through the National Trust for Historic Preservation's Yankee Intern Program. The research files also contain notes from Virginia Macro, president of the South Windsor Historical Society, and Doris Burgdorf, a local historian.
